Ancestral Lines
by Jeremy Morgan Worral

This artwork is a visual representation of the generational lines that carry through my mob. Nanna Wright—through to my Nanna Audle and my Mother Vanessa. Looking back gives me the strength and vision to move forward.

Each figure in the painting is tied to family lines, like songlines, reflecting what they knew and what they passed on. The first represents love, hunting, and tracking. The second reflects care, weaving, and love. The third shows the two combined, while the final two carry unfinished elements—symbols of knowledge and care in motion. Above them sits the essence of Country—winding skies and a giant moon over Araratville. It's by the fire, under these cool skies, where the next generation finds their strength, vision, and legacy.
