VISIT A WORKING TEA TREE PLANTATION

Just minutes from the centre of Ballina, discover the original home of tea tree at Thursday Plantation. This magical and unique tea tree plantation welcomes visitors, allowing you to explore the plantation and discover the healing properties of tea tree, first used by our indigenous ancestors.

The whole property is relaxing, the large open spaces and interesting gardens give you the feeling that you are a long way from anywhere. Enjoy the walk through the small pocket of rainforest that was saved in the 1840 - 1880's from destruction. It is a lovely example of the rainforest that blanketed the whole region. All the wonderful products that are made on-site are available to try with free testers. There is also a wide variety of essential oils and some great factory door specials. It is a lovely example of the rainforest that blanketed the whole region.

ART

MAKING HISTORY

Entry to the plantation is free. Make sure you take the time to watch the short movie on how the family got started to be the first to commercialise tea tree and create a worldwide brand, it is really fascinating.

GET LOST IN THE MOMENT

The tea tree maze is a lot of fun, so let the kids explore while you sit and enjoy the shade under a magnificent fig tree or sample the wonderful range of herbs growing throughout the gardens. The Devonshire tea is a lovely treat, beautiful fluffy scones and a loose leaf pot of tea or fresh local coffee is delightful on the verandah overlooking the gardens.

SHOP

SENSATIONAL SALADS

This little fruit & veggie shop offers so much more than a great selection of fresh produce. Jordans makes the best range of salads daily, healthy meals and raw food snacks.

The family owns and operates the business, they are really friendly and you can see the love they put into their changing dishes everyday. A great option to save you doing all the chopping!

HERE'S THE SCOOP

We believe this is some of the best gelato to be found in the region. Visit Lennox Gelato & Coffee for a cold scoop of deliciousness made fresh on the premises every day. These guys use produce grown in the area that is in season, always a great range of flavours on offer.

Grab your gelato, shake or coffee and sit outside in the plaza or head to the beach to soak up the views and sea breezes. This place pumps out great coffee every morning, and there are always queues for the gelato. The only problem is deciding which flavours to choose.
