

Uki

This little village nestled at the base of Wollumbin (Mt Warning) is home to an eclectic group of friendly locals. The village consists of a small number of shops, a renowned café, galleries, studios & holistic health centres, old wares, a great bookshop & an internet café. The Uki markets are held every 3rd Sunday of the month. Check out the trash & treasure bargains, it is a great morning out. Every Saturday morning the same hall is buzzing with locals buying their weekly fresh produce at the weekly Farmers Market.

Uki to Mt Warning - Driving Directions

- ⇒ Continue out of Uki for 4km to the Mt Warning turnoff on the left.
- ◆ Located at 64 Mt Warning Rd, 600m from the corner (first right after the 2nd bridge) is Mavis's Kitchen. Set within a beautiful 25 acre farmland, they use fresh & local produce to serve simple, home cooked meals. Located in the private surrounds adjacent to the kitchen are cabins and farm house accommodation suitable for couples or families.

Mt Warning National Park (Wollumbin)

Mt Warning (Wollumbin) is the central plug of a huge, shield-shaped volcano surrounded by a rim or caldera. Wollumbin is a sacred & spiritual place to the Bundjalung people, traditional inhabitants of the region. Under Bundjalung law, only chosen people are allowed to climb Wollumbin. Out of respect for their culture, the Bundjalung ask that you consider not climbing. Visitors are however, welcome to take a walk among the palms & breathtaking forest giants on the 200m Lyrebird track. Mt Warning is the spot where the first rays of sunlight hit the Australian mainland.

Mt Warning to Murwillumbah - Driving Directions

- ⇒ Heading back along Mt Warning Rd turn left onto Kyogle Rd & follow the signs to Murwillumbah.

Murwillumbah

Tweed Regional Gallery & Margaret Olley Art Centre

Before leaving Murwillumbah take the time to visit the Tweed Regional Art Gallery which offers stunning views of Mt Warning from the panoramic windows inside the gallery & from the deck of the gallery's gourmet café.

It is a short 3km drive from the Visitor Information Centre. Once leaving the information centre head South along the Tweed Valley Way, turn right into Scott St & left into Mistral Rd. Exhibitions change regularly throughout the year & cover various artistic mediums.

The Margaret Olley Art Centre features original architectural elements such as windows and doors, relocated from Olley's home studio at 48 Duxford St, Paddington, Sydney. Open Wed to Sun 10am-5pm.

When exploring the hinterland please ensure that you take adequate water, wear appropriate footwear, apply sun protection & wear a hat.
